

ASX Announcement Bapcor Limited (ASX: BAP)

18 December 2025

Chris Wilesmith appointed as Bapcor's CEO and Managing Director

The Bapcor Board has today announced the resignation of Angus McKay as Chief Executive Officer and is pleased to announce the appointment of Chris Wilesmith as Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director (CEO & MD).

Chris Wilesmith is an experienced executive and non-executive director with extensive automotive aftermarket industry experience. He has deep experience across all aspects of trade, retail and supply chain operations in both Australia and New Zealand, including roles as a director of some of Bapcor's key suppliers and competitors.

Chris' former executive roles include Group CEO & MD of Jaycar Electronics, CEO of Mitre 10 (New Zealand) and 13 years as part of the Super Retail Group Executive Leadership team, seven years of which he was Managing Director of Supercheap Auto.

Lachlan Edwards, Bapcor Chair said: "Chris brings deep and broad automotive aftermarket experience to Bapcor. His previous senior roles in growing businesses in each of Bapcor's segments will be critical to take our businesses into their next phase of driving growth and performance."

Combined with Craig Magill running the Trade and Networks segments, Bapcor has two very strong and experienced leaders who have a deep understanding of the automotive aftermarket industry."

Chris will commence as CEO & MD on 14 January 2026 and will be assisted by Angus for a transitional period.

Lachlan Edwards, Bapcor Chair said: "On behalf of the Bapcor Board, I want to thank Angus for his contribution to the company. In his 16 months with Bapcor, there has been significant progress in simplifying the Company. With our business foundations stabilised, Bapcor is now focused on its recovery and growth."

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 3.16.4, Bapcor has included the material terms of Chris' service agreement in Appendix A.
