

Nomination Committee Charter

Bapcor Limited ABN 80 153 199 912

Adopted by the Board on 1 May 2024

Bapcor Limited Nomination Committee Charter (Charter)

This Charter outlines the role, responsibilities and composition of the Nomination Committee of the board (Board) of Bapcor Limited (Bapcor) and the manner in which it discharges its responsibilities for Bapcor and its subsidiaries (the Bapcor Group).

1 Role of the Committee and authority

- (a) The primary purpose of the Nomination Committee (Committee) is to assist the Board of Bapcor in fulfilling its responsibilities in relation to Board and committee size and composition, selection, appointment and re-appointment of directors, Board and committee performance, development and succession planning.
 - (b) The Committee is a committee of the Board established in accordance with Bapcor's Constitution and discharges its responsibilities by making recommendations to the Board. The Committee does not have any executive powers to commit the Board to the implementation of its recommendations except where expressly stated in this Charter or as authorised under any separate resolutions of the Board from time to time.
 - (c) The Committee has the authority to seek any information it requires from any team member or entity of the Bapcor Group, with full access to all books, records, company operations, and people of Bapcor and has the authority to engage external consultants or other professional advisers as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

2 Membership

- (a) The Committee should to the extent practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, comprise of:
 - (i) at least three members;
 - (ii) non-executive directors; and
 - (iii) a majority of independent directors.
- (b) Membership of the Committee is as approved by the Board.
- (c) The chair of the Board will be the chair of the Committee (Committee Chair) and must be an independent non-executive director, except where the Committee is addressing the appointment of a successor to the chair of the Board, in which case another member of the Committee (other than the chair of the Board) will be appointed to oversee the selection and appointment of the successor to the chair of the Board.
- (d) The appointment and removal of Committee members is the responsibility of the Board.
- (e) A Committee member may resign as a member of the Committee upon reasonable notice in writing to the Committee Chair.
- (f) If a Committee member ceases to be a director of the Board their appointment as a member of the Committee is automatically terminated with immediate effect.
- (g) The company secretary is secretary to the Committee.

3 Meetings

- (a) The Committee will meet as frequently as is required to undertake its role effectively, but not less than two times per calendar year.
- (b) Any Committee member may, and the company secretary must upon request from any member, convene a meeting of the Committee.
- (c) The Committee may invite any director, executive or other staff member to attend all or part of a meeting of the Committee.
- (d) The Committee may, with the approval of the Committee Chair, seek independent advice from external consultants to enable the Committee to properly carry out its functions and meet its objectives.
- (e) The proceedings of all meetings will be minuted by the company secretary. All minutes of the Committee are available for inspection by any director of the Board, except where there is a potential conflict of interest.
- (f) A quorum for any meeting will be at least two Committee members.
- (g) The Committee may request the Chief Executive Officer, Chief People & Culture Officer, Chief Financial Officer or any other executive (as applicable) to provide any information or carry out any task that may be necessary to enable the Committee properly to carry out its functions and meet its objectives.
- (h) The Committee meetings may be held virtually at the option of the Committee Chair or, with agreement of the Committee Chair, may be attended virtually by individual directors or other attendees where it is not possible for the director or attendee to attend the Committee meeting in person.

4 Roles and Responsibilities

The Committee's key responsibilities and functions are set out below:

Board and Committee composition

- (a) Monitor, review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the appropriate size, composition and diversity of the Board and committees to ensure that they are of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills and knowledge to enable them to discharge their duties effectively;
- (b) Assist the Board to develop and regularly review its board skills matrix setting out the appropriate mix of desirable skills, expertise, diversity and experience that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership;

Selection, appointment and re-appointment of Directors

- (c) Review and recommend to the Board the criteria for the nomination as a director and the membership of the Board more generally, including;
 - (A) recommendations for the appointment, composition, re-election and removal of directors;
 - (B) the terms and conditions of appointment to and retirement from the Board;

- (C) assisting the Board to identify qualified individuals for nomination to the Board in accordance with the process outlined in section 6 of this Charter; and
- (D) monitoring and reviewing the time non-executive directors are expected to devote to Bapcor's affairs and whether directors are meeting that requirement.

Performance and development

- (d) Make recommendations to the Board regarding the process for reviewing the performance of the Board, its committees and individual directors;
- (e) Ensuring that an effective induction process is in place for newly appointed directors to the Board and regularly review the effectiveness of those induction procedures;
- (f) Ensuring that directors are provided with appropriate professional development opportunities to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge required to perform their role as a director effectively and for directors to receive briefings on material developments in laws, regulations and accounting standards relevant to the Bapcor Group;

Succession planning

- (g) Review and make recommendations to the Board regarding Board succession plans, including for the succession of directors to maintain an appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity on the Board and its committees;
- (h) Review and make recommendations to the Board regarding succession of the Chief Executive Officer and identify and recommend to the Board candidates for the position of Chief Executive Officer where required, including:
 - (A) guidelines for management development; and
 - (B) review of the Chief Executive Officer succession and development plans.

5 Reporting

- (a) The Committee will:
 - (i) regularly report to the Board on all matters relevant to the Committee's role and responsibilities;
 - (ii) report and, as appropriate, make recommendations to the Board after each Committee meeting on matters dealt with by the Committee; and
 - (iii) as and when appropriate, seek direction and guidance from the Board on nomination and related matters.
- (b) Minutes of Committee meetings will be included in the papers for the next full Board meeting.

6 Selection, appointment and re-appointment process

In searching for and selecting new directors for the Board, the Committee may adopt certain criteria to make recommendations to the Board, including the candidate's background, experience, professional skills, personal qualities, gender, ethnicity or other relevant attribute. Consideration will also be given to the capability of the candidate to devote the necessary time and commitment to the role, potential conflicts of interest and independence and whether their skills and experience will complement the existing Board.

With respect to the selection of potential candidates for the Board:

- (a) the Committee will review on an annual basis the board skills matrix to identify any 'gaps' in the skills and experience of the directors on the Board;
- (b) the Committee will take into consideration Bapcor's Diversity and Inclusion Policy in selecting new directors for the Board.
- (c) the Committee will obtain assistance from professional advisors to identify and assess the suitability of Board candidates;
- (d) the Committee will undertake appropriate checks in respect of each candidate;
- (e) the names of candidates submitted for election or re-election as directors at a shareholder meeting should be accompanied in the notice of meeting by the following information to enable shareholders to make an informed decision on their election:
 - (i) biographical details, including skills, experience, competencies and qualifications and information sufficient to enable an assessment of the independence of the candidate;
 - (ii) a statement by the Board as to whether it supports the nomination of the proposed candidate(s);
 - (iii) details of relationships between:
 - (A) the candidate and Bapcor; and
 - (B) the candidate and directors of Bapcor;
 - (iv) directorships held;
 - (v) particulars of other positions which involve significant time commitments;
 - (vi) if the candidate has been submitted to be elected as a non-executive director, any interests, positions, associations or relationships which may bear on the candidate's independence;
 - (vii) the term of office currently served by any directors subject to re-election; and
 - (viii) any other particulars required by law.

7 Review of Charter, Committee membership and Performance

The Committee will, at least once in each year, review the membership and Charter of the Committee to determine their respective adequacy for current circumstances and the Committee may make recommendations to the Board in relation to the Committee's membership, responsibilities, functions or otherwise.

The Committee shall carry out a formal Board evaluation process to review the performance of the Board and its committees at least once every two years to determine whether they are functioning effectively by reference to current best practice.
